RUMMANS'S RECORD

It's Very Scaly
For One Who Wants
Your Vote.

Some four or five years ago Mr. J. "Dud" Rummans came to this city from Tolleboro, Lewis county, for the double purpose of holding down a position in the Revenue Service and of prosecuting his business as agent of the Equitable Life Insurance Company of New York.

When he got off Uncle Sam's payroll he found Mayville a very fruitful field for the propagation of insurance policies; so he has ever since made this city his headquarters for business—but has always done his voting in Lewis county—paying taxes in neither place.

The late Dr. John P. Phister was the Medical Examiner for Mr. Rummans's insurance company; and when Dr. Phister died some two years ago it was necessary to secure the appointment of a successor.

Here was a chance to display his characteristic "act;" so Rummans pounced down on Dr. G. M. Phillips with a proposition that if he, Phillips, would take a $5,000 policy with his company he, Rummans, would see that Dr. Phillips was made Medical Examiner.

The deal went through handsomely, and by agreement Dr. Phillips took the policy, giving his note for the premium, with the understanding that the note should be offset by the fees for medical examinations.

Meantime, encouraged by his success in the outset, Rummans made the same proposition to Dr. W. S. Yazell, who, like Dr. Phillips, was charmed with the idea and entered into full and complete negotiations—and paid the bidder.

Not content with a single brace of dopes, he approached Dr. J. H. Samuel with the same enticing scheme, promising him a sylvan nook on the shady side of Easy street; but Dr. Samuel wasn't to be caught napping, for he wrote the State Agency at Louisville and learned that "Dud" couldn't deliver the goods.

He then swooped down on a fourth physician with his "shell game" and it is generally understood that he "worked" him.

However, that matters little.

There's enough in the following letter from Dr. Phillips to show that Rummans is anything but a straightforward, honorable business man:

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 15th, 1895.

Mr. Thomas A. Davis, Mayville, Ky.—Dear Thomas: Yours of present date at hand. In response, would suggest that you see C. B. Pearce, with whom I have talked freely about the transaction between myself and Mr. Rummans. To attempt to give you the details would be to write more than you would care to read. I LOOK UPON HIM AS A CONFIDENCE SHARK.

Dr. Yazell can also acquaint you with his methods.

Truly and sincerely yours,

G. M. PHILLIPS.

It is hardly necessary to say that Dr. Phillips refused to pay the note given Rummans, because it had been obtained through false pretenses.

The fun of the thing, however, lies in the fact that neither one of the four physicians whom Rummans "biked," or attempted to blik, got the appointment of Medical Examiner, but it went to an outside party.

Fellow-Republicans, what do you think of your so-called candidate for the Senate?

If you knew him thoroughly, you wouldn't vote for him.

So keep your eyes on THE LEIGER and it will acquaint you with the man and his methods, furnishing proof for every statement it makes.

That there may be no misunderstanding, we wish it distinctly understood that the foregoing was written with a full knowledge and sanction of the gentlemen whose names are mentioned in connection with the transactions of Mr. Rummans.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clarke of East Third street are entertaining a fine one, which arrived Wednesday night.

Mr. Andrew Humphreys and Miss Stella F. White, both of this county, married Saturday at the bride's home near Dexter.

The professional card of Dr. W. S. Yazell appears elsewhere in THE LEIGER. The Doctor is acquiring reputation as a physician and surgeon, and will respond promptly to all calls for his services.

The C. and O. Railroad has acquired a perpetual lease on the property adjoining the C. and O. yards at Newport from the Gaff estate. The consideration was $22,000 and 5 per cent. The C. and O. people will use the property, which is 250 by 600 feet, for switching yards.

Captain James T. Willis, a prominent lawyer and politician of Williamstown, died at that place Saturday morning. Captain Willis is Past Grand Master of Kentucky Oddfellows, and one of the present Representatives to the Sovereign Grand Lodge. He has many friends in Mayville who will regret to hear that he is no more of this world. The funeral will take place this afternoon.

High School Entertainment.

Mrs. Martin, artist and teacher, will give a Dramatic Reading at the High School this evening. Good music will add to the pleasure of the occasion. Doors open at 7:30 o'clock, exercises begin at 8 o'clock. Tickets 35 cents. Streetcars will be waiting at the Postoffice.

Mrs. Ben. D. Parry Dead.

Mrs. Mary L. Parry, wife of ex-Circuit Clerk Ben D. Parry, died at her home near Helena at 1:30 o'clock Monday morning, October 21st, aged about 70 years, the result of a paralytic stroke sustained several weeks since. She leaves besides her husband three sons, Messrs. William, Charles and Glenn Parry, the former a prominent business man of St. Joseph, Mo. The funeral will take place at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Frank Perrie, on Fourth street in this city, with services by the Rev. W. W. Hall, but the time has not yet been decided upon.

PASSED PEACEFULLY AWAY.

Mrs. William Davis Yesterday Laid Down Life's Burden.

After four weeks illness, borne with Christian fortitude and without sigh or reproach, one of the sweetest characters within the writer's knowledge has entered into eternal rest.

Mrs. William Davis died at the family home on West Second street at 10:30 Sunday morning, October 20th, 1895, in her 70th year.

Hettie Corwine, daughter of John and Ann Corwine, who were among the pioneers of this section, was born in this city September 1st, 1836, and here, with the exception of one or two years in Louisville, her whole life was spent.

March 28th, 1848, she became the wife of William Davis, and together, in sweetest union and "neath cloudless skies," they sailed the Stream of Life for nearly half a century.

A wife devoted, a mother tender and affectionate, a neighbor kind and self-sacrificing, a Christian who portrayed the teachings of the Master in her daily walk—she was faithful unto death in all things.

"How sweet it is to die on Sunday morning," said she when a pure young life went out a few months ago; and how the wish-apparent was fulfilled when her own spirit wafted heavenward as the church bells rang out on a lovely sunlit Sabbath morn'!

Surviving, she leaves a grief-stricken husband and four loving children—three daughters and one son—Miss Tillie S. Davis of this city, Mrs. M. S. Dimmitt of Covington, Miss Mattie A. Davis and Mr. William R. Davis of this city—who have the condolence of the entire community.

The funeral will take place from the residence, 470 West Second street, Tuesday morning, October 23d, at 10 o'clock, with services by the Rev. E. B. Calk of the Christian Church, of which she had been a devoted member for more than fifty years.

Interment private at the Mayville Cemetery.

Thirty Thousand Shells Coal.

William's Forestry Coal at 6 cents; Kanawha Coal, semi-union, at 9 cents; best grades—at N. Cooper's Coal Yard, Fifth Ward.

Cheneweth's Cough Syrup will relieve your cough. Money refunded if it doesn't.

Judge Garrett S. Wall of this city, Ex-governor of Mrs. E. E. Buckner, deceased, was Sarah B. Henry and A. W. Henry for $326 50, due the estate of Mrs. Buckner, and for an order of sale on their property at the corner of Madison avenue and Ninth street, Covington.

UNANIMOUSLY NOMINATED.

Mr. Milton Johnson For Representative from Mason County.

He's a winner! And his name is Milton Johnson. And he's a gentleman.

With a clean record!

Saturday the Republicans of Mason assembled in Mass Convention to nominate a candidate for Representative in the General Assembly.

The meeting was called to order by D. P. Ort, County Chairman, and C. C. Hopper was made temporary Secretary. The temporary organization was made permanent.

Nominations being in order, Major W. W. Gault, in a handsome way, presented the name of Mr. Milton Johnson.

The nomination was seconded by Mr. C. C. Degman.

"Squire J. H. Grigsby then nominated Elder T. P. Degman.

But the latter withdrew his name and the nomination of Mr. Johnson was made unanimous.

Messrs. W. W. Gault and Thomas Forman were appointed to notify Mr. Johnson of his nomination, and they soon presented him to the Convention.

In a few well-chosen words of thanks Mr. Johnson accepted the honor, promising to make a vigorous fight, and if elected to do his whole duty to the people of Mason county.

A MASON COUNTYMAN.

Mr. Henry Worthington Passes Away at His Covington Home.

Mr. Henry Worthington, one of Covington's well known citizens, died at 8:30 Saturday night at his home, 76 West Fourth street.

The deceased was in every respect a self-made man—a millionaire at the time of his death. He began life a poor farmer boy and by his own energy and industry accumulated a vast fortune.

Mr. Worthington was born in Mason county, Ky., September 1st, 1836, the youngest of 14 children born to Thomas T. and A. Whipples Worthington, who were among the early settlers of Kentucky, having located in Mason county in 1796.

The deceased, from early boyhood, displayed remarkably good business judgment. He made a success of farming and stock raising, and in 1847 went to Scioto county, O., and for ten years operated the immense stone quarries there with a force of 600 men.

Later he went to Covington and speculated, with the same confidence and shrewd mercantile sense, in leaf tobacco, and became one of the noted men on the Cincinnati markets. He purchased a two-third interest in the Licking Rolling Mill, was made President, and after putting it on a firm foundation, retired from active business pursuits. For years, however, he remained President of the Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Company.

In 1853 Mr. Worthington was married to Miss Maria Slack, daughter of Jacob A. Slack, and 6 children were born to them, 3 of whom survive—Henry S., Lillie Stewart and Mattie Worthington. Mrs. Worthington died in 1867.

The deceased was a member of the Presbyterian Church, a Democrat, but never allowed his name to be spoken for political office, though often urged to do so. Mr. Worthington had been in very poor health for some years.

His death was due to a complication of diseases.

The funeral takes place on Tuesday at 2 p. m. from the family residence, and Mr. Charles B. Pearce of this city will be one of the pallbearers.

RIVER TOO LOW TO RUN OVER LOUISVILLE FALLS.

Navigation Almost Entirely Suspended—Prospect of the Lowest Stage Ever Known—Tributaries About Dry.

Louisville Courier-Journal.

Seldom, if ever, has there been a more general suspension of navigation on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers and their tributaries than exists now on these two great arteries of commerce. The long continued and general drought throughout the country has been the cause, and the end is not yet. Only a few very light draught sternwheel boats are running in short trades on the Ohio river, and now but two sternwheel boats of light draught are running on the Mississippi, while most of the tributaries of both streams are almost dry and only two or three small light-draught boats are running in tributaries which are locked and jammed. The Allegheny and Monongahela are very low. The latter stream has not been so low as it is now for nearly forty years, and navigation is almost entirely suspended. In the pool above Davis Island dam there are over 30,000,000 bushel of coal, some of which has been loaded in boats and barges since the early part of July, awaiting a rise sufficient to bring it down the Ohio. From Davis Island dam, a few miles below Pittsburgh, to Cincinnati the river is almost dry in many places and navigation is almost entirely suspended. In many places there is not more than a foot of water, while at others cattle are crossing from one shore to the other. At Cincinnati all the boats have gone to the bank with the exception of two or three very small ones, and even they are finding trouble in making short trips on account of the scarcity of water. The Licking and Miami rivers are about dry. There are no boats running through to Cincinnati from this city—a thing which has not happened since 1879. There are several bad bars between this city and Cincinnati, among which are Craig's (the worst), Locust, Gunpowder, Rising Sun and Lawrenceburg. There is less than two feet of water on these bars. There are but three little boats running between here and Evansville, all others being unable to get over the many bars, upon which there is but twenty four inches of water. The Stagg and Hart make irregular trips from here to Owensboro while the Rose Hite makes trips from Owensboro to Evansville, connecting with two boats from this city. From Evansville to the mouth of the Ohio there are but two small boats running in short trades.

Thus it will be seen that the Ohio river is lower now than it has been since September 10th, 1881. But it was even lower than in 1881 in the summer of 1871, when the marks at the head of the canal locks showed less than eight inches, and it is probable that the present stage of the declining river, with no prospect of rains or a rise in night, may be even lower than 1871, and navigation on the Ohio river be suspended entirely.

The marks in the canal here yesterday showed twenty-six inches at its head, and zero on the falls, and the river falling. The bed of the falls is almost entirely destitute of water, and many people are walking upon the dry rocks all over it. A short distance out in the river from the Mill Line Wharfboat there is scarcely enough water to float a skiff, while along the bank from Fourth street down there is an accumulation of filthy mud, with scarcely enough water to float a coal-barge.

On account of the dam across the head of the falls, the canal locks being closed nearly all the time and the river being too low for any water to pass down over the falls, the harbor here and for a distance of fifty miles up the river has become a stagnant pool of dead water. With the sewers of the city and old Beargrass creek pouring their deadly contents into the river, and our harbor being a catch basin for all the filth and contents of sewers that empty into the river at all the cities from here to Wheeling and beyond, it would be natural to suppose that the water in the local harbor is not as pure as it might be, nor as healthy as it ought to be. The sewer outlets at the foot of Third and Fourth streets alone pour enough dead matter into the river to poison all the water in the harbor, and the canal is full of it from one end to the other. The sluiceways in the canal locks are opened occasionally, but it does not do much good in permitting a current to be formed sufficient in power to carry off the deadly poison that is daily poured into the river from the sewers here and at points above.

The outlook for rains, a rise in the river, and a general resumption of traffic and trade on the Ohio and its tributaries is anything but promising just now.

Uncle Sam's Shortage.

The deficit in the National Treasury for the present fiscal year—from July 1st to date—is $21,157,352.81.

It is said that his name is "JOEL" DUD RUMMANS; it ought to have been JAMES.

The New York World says that the Hon. WILLIAM L. WILSON addressed "1000 of his constituents" in West Virginia the other day. If we remember rightly the outcome of the last election in the Second Congressional District of that state the Hon. WILLIAM L. WILSON had no constituents in that region.

About half a dozen very respectable gentlemen, who are wrapped up in RUMMANS without knowing the company they are in, have ceased taking THE LEADER. It will be our pleasure to convince them that a newspaper man has better opportunity for investigation than the ordinary layman, and to acquaint them with the true character of the person who now seeks their support. And it may surprise them to know that for each subscriber lost two have been added. Therefore, THE LEADER will continue publishing at the old stand. Now is the time to subscribe—and advertise.

ONE of the largest political gatherings ever assembled in Kentucky greeted Colonel BRADLEY at Corning Saturday night. Boys, it looks very much like it was Republican year in Kentucky. Vote the state ticket from start to finish.

SOMEbody says "DUD" RUMMANS says he doesn't intend to be drawn into a newspaper controversy, and therefore doesn't propose to reply to the correspondent who wants to know if he really is an Atheist, as reported. Well, it is probably a very good idea for "DUD" to keep his mouth shut, for if he should open it he would get his foot in it.

Pigs Warming Tobacco.

Winchester Democrat.

T. J. Hatcher has thirteen shoats that have gotten so fat as to be able to go to tobacco worms and they picked the worms off themselves, says The Glasgow Times. Mr. Hatcher was told by some of his hands that pigs were warming the tobacco, but as he had never heard of this before he drove the hogs into the field and they ran at once to the tobacco pack, where they began to eat to pick the worms off as fast as they came to him. This story is vouched for by some of the best men in the Hilserville county—anything Mr. Hatcher says needs no vouching for.

And It Happened in Adams County, O., Too.

The following item is from The Manchester Signal, and to say the least it is a few scales on it:

"A novel wedding scene took place in Scott Township, this county, last week. Samuel Plummer of North Liberty and Miss Fannie Pence of Bentonville were the contracting parties, and Squire John McNeil the officiating officer. As it was desired to keep the wedding a secret the ceremony was performed in the woods under the blue canopy of the skies, with the moon shedding its pale light upon the scene, and no witnesses except the parents of the groom and the twinkling stars. After the ceremony the bride was peeled from four sturdy oaks, to mark the place."

LABOR'S UNREST

Labor Commissioner Carroll D. Wright's Report.

Strikes and Lockouts During the Past Seven and a Half Years.

Illinois Had the Largest Number of Establishments Affected—New York Comes Second and Pennsylvania Third.

Employees Involved Were 5,591,703.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The relations of capital to labor, so far as these appear in strikes and lockouts, during the past seven and one-half years, are exhaustively treated in the annual report of Col. Carroll D. Wright, the commissioner of labor, which is made public Monday. The report shows that during the foregoing period Illinois had the largest number of establishments affected by strikes and lockouts, there having 10,000 of the former and 1,193 of the latter. New York comes second on the list with 9,140 establishments involved in strikes and 723 lockouts, and Pennsylvania third with 8,719 strikes and 490 lockouts.

The industries most affected by strikes during the seven and one-half years included in the report were the building trades, with 20,785. The total number of employees involved or thrown out of work during the period covered by the report was 5,591,703. The total number of strikes was 1,834,212. There were 329,611 new employees after the strikes of the foregoing period, of which 115,377 were brought from other places. Lockouts were ordered in 3,853 establishments having 275,057 employees. Of these, 203,367 were thrown out of work in consequence thereof. These establishments secured 27,465 new employees after the lockouts, of which 115,377 were brought from other places.

An interesting feature of the report is the tabular statement showing the states in which the majority of strikes and lockouts were located. These were five in number and each respectively, Illinois, Massachusetts, New York, Ohio and Pennsylvania. The strikes in this quintet of commonwealths were about 70 per cent. of the total number of strikes. The strikes in the United States affected by strikes, while the lockouts were about 76 per cent. of the total number of lockouts. These five states contained 21 per cent. of all the manufacturing establishments and employed 56 per cent. of the capital invested in the mechanical industries of the country. Taking the census of 1890 as the basis of computation.

The report shows that out of a total of 10,488 strikes for the entire country more than 56 per cent. occurred in 30 cities. The number of establishments involved in strikes in the United States were 46,893, of which number 61 per cent. occurred in the foregoing cities, which are as follows:—Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Chicago, Boston, Allegheny and Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Milwaukee, New York, New York, New York, Baltimore, New Haven, Newark, Cleveland, Rochester, Indianapolis, Haverhill, Minneapolis, Patterson, Buffalo, Jersey City, St. Paul and Troy. More than 40 per cent. of the strikes in the cities which aggregated 5,500, occurred in New York, where the wage loss of $5,500,000, and the loss of 576,000 contributed to them by other labor organizations, while the loss to employers was a little more than $3,000,000.

The total wage loss to the employees during the foregoing period in these 30 cities in round numbers $3,000,000, while the loss to employers was something less than $2,000,000. The number of lockouts, as compared with the strikes, for the entire country was small in the aggregate, but the losses incurred were enormously increased. The total was 214 lockouts with a loss of wages to the employees of $12,000,000, while that of the employees was nearly half that sum.

For the period covered by the report of the 46,893 establishments affected by strikes, success in their demand was gained by the employees in 20,397; partial success was gained in 4,773; establishments and failure followed in 21,682 establishments. Out of 3,853 establishments having lockouts, 1,883 succeeded in gaining their demands, 391 partially succeeded and 1,558 failed. The leading cause of the strikes was for an increase of wages and there represented 25 per cent. of the whole number. Thirteen per cent. were for reduction of hours, 8 per cent. against reduction of wages, 7 per cent. were sympathetic, 6 per cent. were for increase of wages and reduction of hours, 4 per cent. were against employment of non-union men, and 3 per cent. for a recognition of the union. The remainder of the strikes are attributed to a number of other causes of no especial general interest.

Fatally Struck by a Hot Tin.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Thomas McCoy, of 1109 First Avenue, was probably fatally stabbed in the heart with a hot tin by his wife, from whom he has been separated for some time, while dancing with a strange woman at a ball in Fernando's hall Sunday night. Those Who Were Entered Probably by the Same Burglar.

MORRISTOWN, Ky., Oct. 21.—Wm. Lewis, of Fleming county, was placed under arrest and lodged in jail Sunday by Marshal T. A. Day, charged with attempted house breaking. On Friday night two unsuccessful attempts were made to enter the residence of Rev. F. C. Button. Saturday night an attempt was made to enter the residence of Rev. James E. Wright, but they frightened the parties away. At 2 o'clock another attempt was made. Rev. Wright saw the man leave the yard by the front gate, and gave a description to the police, which tallies with the man under arrest. Rev. William Barry, who lives at Maple Mills, in Fleming county, reported to the police Sunday that on Wednesday night an attempt was made to enter his residence. Lewis is believed to be denounced.

A DISASTROUS

Blaze That Swept Over a Thriving Kentucky Town.

MORRISTOWN, Ky., Oct. 21.—A most disastrous fire broke out at Farmers, eight miles west of here at 2 o'clock Sunday morning, entailing a loss of over $15,000. It originated in Ochsburg, Watkins' pool-room, and spread to C. M. Crane's drugstore and grocery, thence to A. C. Heavin's barber shop. Crossing over the street, it reached the post office building and contents. Lloyd & Hildebrand's millinery store and the residence of Isaac Alley, Judge Graycraft and William Barry. By the united efforts of all the citizens it was finally put out. Several times the large lumber yards of Louis E. Water were discovered on fire, but were put out, with a loss of $500. Water was carried from the Licking.

THE MAYS' NEW REPUBLICAN

WEEKLY PUBLISHED LEDGER.

Did U?

Did you ever think that relatives or friends who have moved to distant places—gone West, perhaps, to grow up with the country—are always glad to hear from their "Old Kentucky Home"? And did it ever occur to you that a single copy of THE MAYS' NEW REPUBLICAN, the weekly edition of The Public Ledger—contains more news to you than you could embrace in a hundred ordinary letters? And did it ever strike you that you can send the paper to your relatives and friends for a whole year at less cost than you can write a letter every week? Besides, don't you think a year's subscription to THE MAYS' NEW REPUBLICAN would be a present highly appreciated by those who "dust" suppose not? If so, send them the paper and hear what they have to say on the subject.
